WHEATLESS MEALS

BY BIDDY BEE.
Prophecies as to increased restrictions on the use of wheat at home tables have been fulfilled and the Food Administration has placed the ban on more than two wheat-bread meals a day for hotels and restaurants and on Mondays and Wednesdays and puts its faith in patriotic housewives to observe the rule voluntarily. Surely a single wheatless meal each day is an extremely small test to put to our pampered appetites, especially since the substitution of breads made from other cereals involves no loss whatever in food values, and in many cases proves a real benefit.

Here are three recipes for cereal breads and one for a breadcrumb pudding which will prove useful as a wheatless day dessert. The Ohio Experiment Station is responsible for the first two recipes.

APPLE CORN BREAD—Mix 2 cups of white cornmeal with 2 tablespoons of sugar and 1/2 teaspoonful of salt and 1 teaspoonful of baking powder. To the mixed dry ingredients add 1 2/3 cups of sweet milk and 3 apples, peeled and sliced thin. Pour the batter into a shallow pan well buttered and bake half hour in moderate oven.

BUCKWHEAT BREAD—Mix and sift together 1 cupful of buckwheat flour and 1/2 cupful of whole wheat flour, 3 tablespoons of baking powder and 2 tablespoons of corn syrup or molasses. Add gradually 1 cupful of whole milk, 1 egg, well beaten, and 1 tablespoonful of melted butter or dripping. Bake half hour in buttered oven.

RYE BREAD—Scald 1 cupful liquid, half milk and half water, and cool until lukewarm. Add to liquid 1 teaspoonful salt and 1/4 cake yeast dissolved in 1/4 cupful warm water, and 2 1/2 cups of rye flour sifted with 2 cups of wheat flour. Mix thoroughly, knead again, shape into loaf, and let rise until double in bulk. Bake for 50 minutes.

CRUMBS SPICE PUDDING—To 1 cupful of dry cornbread crumbs add 1 pint of hot milk and let stand until the milk is absorbed. Add 1/4 teaspoonful salt, scant half cupful of molasses, and 1/4 teaspoonful each of ground cinnamon, cloves, nutmeg, allspice and ginger. Stir into the mixture 2/3 cupful of seeded raisins which have stood in scalding water for three minutes. Add 1 egg, well beaten, and turn into a greased pudding dish to bake for 45 minutes. Serve with hot maple sirup or caramel sauce.

Italian Held For the Federal Court

United States Commissioner J. P. Kirby this morning held Paul Sikora, an Italian, to answer a charge of bringing in intoxicants. Sikora was arrested by Constable Michael and Assistant Chief of Police Seaman at the B. & O. station on Thursday night of last week. He is alleged to have had three gallon jugs of alcohol. In default of bail he was committed to await the action of the federal grand jury.

Any Sickness Leaves Weakness

Even a simple cold strips and reduces your resistive powers to allow other sickness. Only food—not alcohol or drugs—creates the rich blood which distributes strength to the body, and the concentrated medicinal food in makes the blood rich and stimulates its circulation while its tonic virtue enlivens the appetite and aids nutrition to reestablish your strength quickly and permanently. If you are run-down, anemic or nervous, by all means get Scott's Emulsion. It builds because it is a food—not a stimulant.

COURT HOUSE ROW BEING VACCINATED

"Everybody's Doin' It" Spirit Pervades All of the Offices.

Many of the attaches of the offices in the court house and a number of deputy sheriffs this morning were vaccinated in their offices in that building this morning by Dr. L. N. Yost. Among those vaccinated were Deputy Sheriffs Beatty and Hood and Constable Michael and several of the persons connected with the sheriff's force.

In each instance they realize that they come in contact with so many people because of the public offices and they are grasping the situation in time. Yesterday afternoon Prosecuting Attorney Walter R. Haggerty and Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Charles E. Miller were vaccinated. Everybody around the court house has got the fever of getting vaccinated and it is a move in the right direction.

Jones Brothers Held For Court

Preliminary hearings were given to Harry and Emanuel Jones, charged with holding up at the point of a pistol Isidore Zaslaf, a Hebrew clothing merchant, and robbing him of $115 and a gold watch at the Annabelle trolley stop, on Thursday afternoon before Justice Conaway. Attorney L. C. Musgrave defended Harry Jones while Prosecuting Attorney Haggerty represented the State.

At the same time both men were tried on a charge of robbing E. & O. freight cars. Arthur Goodwin and Mrs. Doris Campbell testified that the brothers had told them of the Zaslaf robbery and related details. Harry Jones, according to the Hebrew merchant, held him up at the point of a revolver while the other brother robbed him. Lipson, the pawn broker, testified that the stolen watch had been pawned at his place. Justice Conaway held Harry Jones under bond in the sum of $2000 in each case to await the action of the grand jury. Emanuel Jones waived examination for the grand jury, but in default of bond was remanded to jail.

Emanuel Jones was arraigned before Justice Conaway on the Zaslaf hold up charge and before Justice Musgrove on the freight car robbery.

Singing Soldiers Always Cheerful

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 22.—The singing of popular songs by American soldiers on active duty "over there" is advocated by their superior officers, according to a U. S. Marine just returned from France. He declares that most of the popular song hits of the day are familiar to the troops in the trenches and that they sing them at every opportunity.

"Singing is a soldier's second nature," said the Marine. "It drives away loneliness and helps to enliven the spirits of the boys. The soldier who can pick a banjo or guitar is a welcome comrade in any camp, not only to the enlisted men, but to the officers as well."

Vaughn Joliff Glad He Entered Service

Vaughn Joliff, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Joliff, who is in France with the U. S. Aviation corps in a letter written back home states that he is doubtful whether he ever returns here again when he reviews the situation, but that he is glad he is there and will stay to the finish. A quotation from his letter is as follows: "The more I speculate over the future," he said, "the more doubtful it appears that I will ever return home, but if I were at home now, knowing all the danger and risk of the service, I would hesitate not a minute to enlist. We must win the war whatever the risk."

FAIRMONT GROCER THANKFUL

"I had been sick nearly 20 years with stomach trouble and was slowly starving to death as everything I ate caused terrible gas and pain and my food did not digest. I was reduced to 115 pounds. A friend advised me to take Mayr's Wonderful Remedy about 4 months ago, which I did and now weigh 151 pounds, and can eat anything. I am very thankful for Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. It is a harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract, and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded."

Your Disposition

—Don't you remember meeting an acquaintance who did not talk to you as you passed each other; then again at the club, dance or house party, you felt you had been snubbed by one you thought friendly? It may have been a business friend, acquaintance or competitor who talked abruptly and made you feel like fighting or going away, never to see that person again.

—Well, don't do it. Size up yourself first, ask the question: was it my disposition, or my physical condition?

—Physical condition nowadays plays the most important part of life. Perhaps the other fellow did not feel well, or being absorbed in some cause or other his thoughts were soaring.

—Never nurse a grudge; have it out and give out and give the party a chance to explain—you'll both feel better for it.

This store at all times places itself in the position of those it serves. We surely wouldn't wrong ourselves; we cannot then do otherwise to you. It is our object at all times to be courteous and obliging. You will find this store has a pleasing disposition, the air of friendliness, the feeling of wanting to do that which is for the customer's best interest. It is therefore to your advantage to become acquainted here, where a good disposition walks hand in hand with style and sensible prices.

DYSPEPTICS ARE THE MOST DISAGREEABLE PEOPLE ON EARTH

Are Always Complaining and Carry a Continual "Grouch."
Are Always Considered a "Kill Joy" and Gloom Spreaders.

DON'T LET YOURSELF BECOME A DYSPEPTIC.

A dyspeptic is the most disagreeable person on earth. That sort of a man or woman always carries a "grouch" and complaining about everything in general. In company they will dampen the spirits of the most pleasant associates and bring upon themselves the hard-to-be-forgotten reputation of a "kill joy" and a "gloom."

Don't let yourself become a dyspeptic. Don't let yourself become one of those poor unfortunates who are always cornering their friends and telling them a whole lot of troubles and waiting about how bad they feel. Try to be a cheer bringer, wear a smile all the while and spread cheer among your friends—you'll be the most popular man in your community if you do.

If you are troubled with dyspepsia, indigestion, system all run down and you are nervous and irritable, don't worry yourself or your friends about it. Take a good tonic, one that will correct your troubles. Such a tonic is Hypo-Cod, the great flesh builder. Hypo-Cod gets right down to the seat of the trouble and uproots it. It cleanses the waste matter from your system, extracts the full nourishment from your food; it gives you a "whale" of an appetite; helps make rich, pure blood; clears the complexion of pimples, etc., puts a good healthy color to the skin; increases your weight considerably; steadies the nerves; renews that old time vigor and doubles the strength in a very little while.

Hypo-Cod brings results because it is composed of nothing but the very valuable medical extracts from fresh cod livers combined with malt, iron, quinine, wild cherry bark, magnesium, hypophosphate, lime, aromatics and sodium, with a dash of sherry wine—a combination that is powerful and efficient with a pleasant wine-like flavor that is delightful. Ask your doctor.

No dangerous or habit-forming drug is found in Hypo-Cod and the full formula is printed on every carton and bottle label for your protection. Look for it on the orange colored carton bearing the Hypo-Cod trade mark in large letters.

And Hypo-Cod is economical. You can get a large bottle from your druggist for only $1.20 which contains enough of this splendid tonic to treat the average family for weeks since a tablespoonful before meals and at bedtime is a dose. Just get a bottle today, use it faithfully as directed on the bottle and in a little while you'll wear a smile that will endear you to all your friends.—Sold by Fairmont Pharmacy, Crane's Drug Store, Martin's Drug Store, Holt Drug Co., Mountain City Drug Co. and Hall's Drug Store.
